OTTAWA, Oct. 22.—Hon. Charles Dunning will be Canada's next minister of finance. The decision was made following consultation with Mr. Dunning's business interests, who realized the country's business case is now at its lowest ebb.

Hon. W. D. Bader has not yet arrived in the capital.

Hon. T. M. Crerar's inclusion in the cabinet is still in doubt as also of the former minister of agriculture, Hon. P. J. A. Gardin and Hon. Fernand Dandieu.

The only three ministers yet absolutely definite are Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Hon. Charles Dunning and Hon. J. C. G. Gardin. Reports that Mr. King would take over the ministry may be dismissed as the new government is scheduled to take office next Saturday or the following Monday.

DeSoto motor cars, who is highly enthused with the new Dodge models for 1936 now on display here for northern Alberta dealers.

M. B. Cornell, Assistant
Sales Manager, Presents
New Models

Dodge and DeSoto dealers from this district gathered in Edmonton Tuesday for an advance showing of the new 1936 Dodge, Dodge factory executives conducted the meeting. Addresses by the sales managers, motion pictures and a private preview of the new cars were enjoyed by the dealers, who were highly enthused with their program for 1936.

M. B. Cornell, assistant sales manager Dodge Brothers (Canada) Limited, drew attention to his company's big addition to its plant and said this was in anticipation of increased production for this year. He stressed greater purchasing power and the public's keen acceptance of his company's cars as a purpose of campaigning in the fall activity was forecast by Mr. Cornell as a result of the introduction of the solid foundation of dependability Dodge has built for dealers to rely upon in marketing their products today.

Following a brief review of the company's plans for 1936 and show, films of motion pictures, the dealers were treated to a preview of the new car. Optimism was expressed on all sides for a successful year in 1936.

Million Dollar Reconstruction
Planned For Fresh
Tremors Occur

HELENA, Mont., Oct. 22.—New earth shocks shattered glass and tumbled chimneys in Helena Monday—the tenth consecutive day of intermittent tremors.

The fresh rumblings came as steaming stew and soup warmed the homeless temporarily displaced from snow-lined winds and while a repair job of millions of dollars' portions was being planned.

Constructive work on the still ailing in food shops, in this state capital of 12,000. Pedestrians took to the middle of the downtown streets, also closed to vehicular traffic.

Minute engineering surveys indicated, however, that the structural network of the larger buildings was unimpaired.

The school board met to determine the extent of providing quarters for nearly 1,000 high school students whose new $300,000 building was badly twisted and unsafe.

The first of the two quake dead, Dave Harris, negro, was buried today.

had better break down society and go back to the cave man stage.

CREDIT—THREE KINDS

—There are three credits. Real credit is financial credit and social credit.

—Real credit is based on your ability to deliver goods and services as, when and where required. It is the credit of the man who is based on the fact that we have goods and services to deliver. We are producing goods and are not receiving what it cost to produce in return. Real credit is in bad shape. Social credit hopes to remedy that situation.

—Financial credit which dominates the world today, is the financial appraisal of your goods and services. If you have a relationship to the men who control credit you can get the credit—otherwise you can't.

—I might observe at this point that you never hear anyone ask where all the money comes from when you speak of credit. I am not blaming the bank manager, he is only playing the rules of the game. If you want any security he says I am sorry I can't give you a loan.

—Social credit is the value of the goods produced as a result of the pressure exerted and the demand of the public. Real credit and financial credit are concerned with the credit that you as individual consumers give to the products of industry.

MANNING ON S.C. AT MEN'S FORUM MEET

Provincial Secretary Clarifies
Workings of Abernethy Plans

"Social credit is the credit that you as individual consumers give to the products of industry. It is the products of your presence and demand for those products as a consuming public," stated Hon. E. C. Manning, provincial secretary, at the Highlands Men's Forum meeting Monday night, in Highland's United church.

H. G. Willis was chairman of the meeting and more than 75 were present.

"I understand that the purpose of this forum is mainly educational in nature. It has much in common with social credit. In fact, many social credit has been primarily an educational movement. It was not launched as an idea backed by a group with political aspirations, but merely as the suggestion of a remedy."

"Social credit has gone through its social credit era. We are not radicals, it is through co-operative effort to join hands in order to face common problems and solve them in a scientific and businesslike manner."

UNANIMOUS GROWING

"The encouraging thing in the last two years is the fact that men have come to the place where they realize that we must work together to solve problems. We are welcome to your opinion and to your political affiliations."

"Social credit is founded on a new conception of values. That is the foundation on which to rest. The tendency in the past has been to figure everything out in cold dollars and cents alone. We have left the human element out of things."

"The Canada year book tells you what our resources are worth; they tell you what our human beings are worth as an asset to the country. Social credit starts off with the idea that the individual is an asset to the country. If he isn't then he is a liability."

NOT TIED DOWN

I might say in this regard we are not going to set a just price for every article, but we will have it set on the production of a line of goods without tying it down to individual articles."

NATIONAL HOCKEY LEAGUE WILL OPEN ON NOV. 7

Madeline Taylor of Brooklyn is eastern archery champion.

FAIS PANS by -BILL LEWIS-

EDMONTON is getting its sports entertainment in a hurry these days... On Thursday, for instance, there will be an athletic bill-of-fare that can just about suit any athletic taste... The Bulletin's annual road race is being staged in the morning, starting at 10 o'clock; there will be a bicycle race in the early part of the afternoon; Commercial Grads will begin defence of their international championship trophy at St. Louis at the Arena at three o'clock; and in the evening Red Fontenot's middleweight grapplers will put on the second of their weekly shows.

It would certainly be hard to get any more variety for the sports-minded citizenry. And in addition to the varied selection, all the events are of the highest order in their respective lines.

THE Bulletin road race should provide a dual battle between the rival clubs which will undoubtedly prove highly interesting. Jack Walbridge, the Saskatchewaner who has won the event for the past two years, is coming back in an attempt to gain permanent possession of the trophy by making up his third victory; but he will be faced by a man who has beaten him on three previous occasions—Jerome Platt, of Tulsa, Okla.

In addition, there will be a race for the "A" trophy, which is the property of the Edmonton Athletic Club, who has shown great form in this race, as well as Bob Mead, Ben Hobbins and Bob Wilkins, all of whom are real contenders for the honors.

THE grade-a game against St. Louis should provide plenty in the way of good entertainment, too, for the Americans came here with fine reputations and they will be meeting the locals at their best as the team from St. Louis enters in their recent work.

ARTFUL Arthur Gagne, former Edmonton hockey star and sports manager, who now holds the latter job with Seattle, the city yesterday, was a busy day around friends and attending to some hockey business, which is the reason for his visit to this party.

Art is going to Regina and Winnipeg on his present trip, returning to the coast a few days later. He is a well-known professional and as many powerful men in the city are coming to him for advice, he had a conference with Henry Hobbins, Edmonton owner and a few hockey players yesterday afternoon.

WINDSOR OPEN CAMP

WINDSOR, Oct. 22.—Since Harry Hughes, one of Windsor Bulldogs hockey team, is in town today, the International League hockey team's pre-season training camp would not open for a day.

Artificially, the camp was opened for a day yesterday, when Coach Jack Robertson, Jack Gaudet, Harry Hughes, and Dave Downie, new forward from Syracuse, were on the way home, Robertson is coming from Edmonton, Rockburn from Aylmer, Ont., and Downie from Vancouver.

'PEG' CONTENDER GAINS DECISION

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—Frankie Battaglia, Winnipeg middleweight title contender, announced today that he has decided to fight Tony Phagan, Chicago negro, to gain the decision last night in a 10-round slugfest match at Madison Gardens.

Battaglia weighed 161, to 155½ for Phagan.

EDMONTON, ALBERTA—TUESDAY, OCT. 22, 1935

Returns To Tigers

Hamilton Tigers welcomed home a long lost brother this season when Hawley "Huck" Welch, the educated boy, returned from Montreal to his former home. Welch, a Hamilton boy, spent several seasons booting for Montreal's entry in the Big Four, but this year he does his stuff in the Tiger backlot. Along with Frank Turville he rounds out a backfield of great potential striking strength.

THE 1935-36 schedule, released last night by President Frank Calder, shows a rearrangement of games to compensate for the loss to the league of one of its oldest clubs, the Ottawa Senators, who performed last season as the St. Louis Eagles.

Instead of each club meeting each other club six times as was the case last year, each club will play four home and three away against the teams in the Eastern Division, three home and three away against the teams in the Western Division, and three home and three away against the teams in the Central Division, when the system of 1933-34, when only eight clubs operated.

THE sections will be: Canadian section, Toronto Maple Leafs, Montreal Maroons and Canadiens, and New York Americans, United States section, New York Rangers, Boston Bruins, Detroit Red Wings and Chicago Black Hawks. Each team will play 24 games at home and 24 away, the same number as last year, with a total of 192 games scheduled for the league.

HONOR of starting the campaign will fall upon Red Dutton's rebuilt New York Americans, who test Chicago Black Hawks at the Wrigley Club.

Other clubs who will swing into action within a few days, Toronto Maple Leafs, who will again be at home every Saturday night, entertain Americans on November 9 and the following night Detroit will reverse its baptism at home with Rangers at opposition.

GOTHAM OPENERS NOV. 14 Montreal's first game will be on November 12, with Rangers facing Canadiens. New York will see its first hockey November 14, with Boston Bruins visiting Montreal Maroons, who meet at Montreal on Saturday, Nov. 16. First game at Boston is scheduled for Nov. 19 against Americans.

NEW HAVEN EAGLES Purchase Wingmen NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 22.—The management of New Haven Eagles, fourth place team in the American Hockey League last season, last night announced the purchase of Gus Hemminger and Lou Frenkel from the Chicago Black Hawks.

THE purchase price for the pair was not revealed. The Eagles will begin training at Oak, Oct. 28.

THE race gets away at 10 o'clock on Thursday morning and starts on 100 street and Jasper avenue to end up in front of the Bulletin office. The ten mile distance is measured out over city streets and will follow the course previously published in the Bulletin.

Western Universities To Battle for Supremacy at Varsity Stadium

Weather permitting, inter- varsity participation in track and field sports will attain a higher level than for some years past when three western universities, Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta met at Varsity Stadium Thanksgiving day.

For the past two years, due to financial reasons, only two universities—Alberta and Saskatchewan, have remained in the track team. Manitoba's re-entrance this year has been greeted as a sign of the returning of track to public favor.

The University of Alberta is rather proud of its achievements on the track in past years, and justly so. The Dean Rutherford cup, symbolizing supremacy in western women's inter-collegiate track, has remained in Alberta hands for the past two years. The Cairns Trophy for men was left in Saskatchewan hands at the track meet there last year.

REAL KEY TO PROSPERITY

for which the Ottawa agreement may claim considerable credit.

It is becoming increasingly clear that the present year indicates improvement in the building industry, but it is not yet clear whether the recovery is a genuine one or a mere temporary respite.

Coming to Canada we note that Canada has shown more progress in recovery than has the United States. Examining the basic industries, we find that Canada today is third in silver and copper production, fourth in lead production, and fourth in gold production.

Canada's position in the building industry is also improving. In 1934, Canada's building industry was valued at $1,547,000,000, compared to $1,547,000,000 for the United States.
